Radical Possibilities Public Policy Urban

The core argument of Jean Anyon's classic Radical Possibilities is deceptively simple: if we do not direct our attention to the ways in which federal and metropolitan policies maintain the poverty that plagues communities in American cities, urban school reform as currently conceived is doomed to fail. With every chapter thoroughly revised and updated, this edition picks up where the 2005 ...

The message of Radical Possibilities is not all hopeless. Anyon believes in good old-fashioned organizing as a strategy for reversing the downward spiral of urban/metropolitan educational achievement. People like Myles Horton, Sol Alinsky, and Septima Clark understood the power of ordinary people coming together to create change in their communities.
