Wild Awake Hilary T Smith

Wild Awake by Hilary T. Smith does what should be impossible: be at once completely batshit crazy and unbelievable, while also painting a pretty accurate portrait of the modern teenager. Kiri Byrd's parents left her by herself for six weeks while they went on a cruise around the world, but she has a plan: she will water the plants, and check the mail.

Wild Awake : Hilary T Smith : 9780062184689

Wild Awake was extraordinary captivating story and nothing like I was expecting. The summary makes you think it's just a normal contemporary. No parents, boys, throw in some heartache and mystery and you have yourself a good book. Hilary T. Smith took it so much farther, though. She made this story into something incredibly unique.
